30 years ago, Only Fools and Horses was the most watched show on Christmas Day...this year what we want to watch may surprise you

There may be different shows and ways to watch but we're a nostalgic nation with a quarter of us still favouring the classics.

- Our favourite shows to watch around Christmas include Only Fools and Horses, which tops the list, along with comedy gems such as Morecambe and Wise and The Vicar of Dibley
- Previous 25th December ratings winners include Gavin & Stacey,

- which topped the charts last year^[1], and the soaps
- The way we watch TV has changed in the last 50 years, from Black & White output through to colour; 3D and 4K through to latest beautiful 48inch 4K HDR A9 OLED TV from Sony, which even makes old classics look their best with a variety of its supreme picture and sound technologies
 - More than a quarter of us (29%) admitted to arguing over what to watch on TV at Christmas; which will be helped by technological advances such as Android and catch-up TV, with families now able to watch what they want, when they want

Comedy is the top choice when it comes to Christmas Day TV, according to a new research from Sony with six of the nation's Top 10 favourite shows to watch on a festive evening having a comedic side - from Mr Bean through to Father Ted.

Christmas Day brings us together and what to watch on the telly is an important decision. Nearly two-thirds of us (a whopping 62%) don't admit to arguing over what to watch.
